Colorado Parks and Wildlife Update

Frank McGee, Area Wildlife Manager for Colorado Parks and Wildlife, will be the featured speaker for our June 8th meeting. He will discuss the following:

- The partnership that CPW is involved with called the Southern Shooting Partnership to improve recreational shooting opportunities on the southern front range
- A range that we're proposing to build on the Ramah State Wildlife Area
- CPW Range Grant programs
- A new program that CPW has in our area called the Rookie Sportsmen Program where they're introducing families that are new to the outdoors to shooting, hunting, fishing, etc.
- CPW in general
- Q&A

This is a great opportunity to learn about the many programs that CPW offers in support of shooting, hunting, and fishing.

Women on Target Clinic

On Sunday, May 7th, more than 25 women participated in the all-day NRA Women on Target clinic. The NRA Foundation, the PPFC, and the Colorado Springs Muzzle Loaders sponsor this great opportunity for
