Legislative Update

House Bill19-1177: Extreme Risk Protection Orders (“Red Flag”), passed out of the Colorado General Assembly and has been signed by the Governor. It goes into effect on January 1, 2020. A law suit is likely as soon as an “injured” person is identified (need a person who has ben subject of the ERPO to file a lawsuit).

Many Colorado sheriffs and county commissions have expressed their opposition to this bill; including, El Paso County Sheriff Bill Elder and the El Paso County Commission.

The General Assembly session ends on May 3, 2019. While several pro-gun bills have been killed, so far, there have been no other anti-gun bills introduced.

The PPFC is a single issue organization: Protecting our right to keep and bear arms. To that end, we support candidates and elected officials who will support and defend that right.

We are entering into a new 2-year campaign cycle leading up to the November 2020 elections. This means we can donate up to $575 per person to the PPFC Political Action Committee (PAC) over the next 2-years. We can also donate up to $50 per calendar year per person to the PPFC Small Donor Committee (SDC). Please consider helping us help those who will be running and supporting our rights. You can donate on the PPFC website or at our meetings.
